

S U S A N

B L O N D

I N C

CHICAGO SUN-TIMES

August 5, 2008

BACK TO SCHOOL

SOME NEW ITEMS TO CHECK OUT

HELP AT HOME

The folks at Kumon Math and Reading Centers produce workbooks ($5.95; $6.95) and flashcards ($9.95).

CUSTOMIZING

The Staples Mix It Up assortment allows students to fill-to-the brim an entire container with their tailored choice of 16 assorted clips and push pins for one fixed price ($5.99 for a small container; $9.99 for a large).

FASHION FOR WORDS

Federal Street Press has the Webster's Dictionary, Webster's Thesaurus and Webster's Spanish-English Dictionary wrapped in colorful patterns at $3.99 each.

LUNCH TIME

Nalgene's BPA-free Everyday Wide Mouth bottle (left) can accommodate ice cubes and won't leak inside backpacks. ($11.50)

ABOUT TIME

The Mark-My-Time digital bookmark times reading and music practice sessions, and homework study sessions. ($8.95)

LOCKS

Instead of numbers, Wordlock locks (above) use easy-to-recall four- or five-letter word combinations (C-A-N-D-Y, G-A-M-E). ($9.99 to $19.99)

PEN AND PAPER

Mead's new 99-cent folder lines include images and logos from Mr. Potato Head, Monopoly, Scrabble and Twister. Pilot Pen Corp.'s BeGreen pen-and-pencil line is made from recycled content and packaged in recycled materials and sells for the same price as their non-recycled counterparts (Less than $2 each).

Cheryl V. Jackson

PEN AND PAPER

Mead's new 99-cent folder lines include images and logos from Mr. Potato Head, Monopoly, Scrabble and Twister. Pilot Pen Corp.'s BeGreen pen-and-pencil line is made from recycled content and packaged in recycled materials and sells for the same price as their non-recycled counterparts (Less than $2 each).